

Ireland Regulatory Traffic Signs

Safety is our priority - please make it your priority also.

Regulatory traffic signs show the course a driver must follow and an action they are required to take or forbidden to take. Regulatory signs are mostly circular and have a red border and black symbols or letters on a white background. Mandatory regulatory signs that indicate the direction traffic must take at junctions are blue and white.

In Ireland, the "Give Way" sign (a downward pointing triangle) reads Yield or Géill Slí in Irish-speaking regions.
