

Ireland Warning Traffic Signs

Safety is our priority - please make it your priority also.

We have detailed the most common warning signs below and included here links to our Driving in Ireland pages which will provide all of the information you need to drive in Ireland.

These are used to warn road users of a hazard ahead. The signs are diamond shaped and have a black border with black symbols or letters on a yellow background.

Warning Traffic Signs

Roundabout

Dangerous
Corner

Merge Lanes
Warning

One way

Two Way Traffic

Dangerous
Corners

Danerghous bend
ahead

Series Bends
Ahead

Junction Ahead Warning Signs

T-Junction

Y-Junction

Crossroads

Side Road

Staggered Crossroads

Crossroads with a minor road

Crossway with Dual-Carriageway

Junction with Dual-Carriageway

Crossroad with a major road

T-Junction with a major road

Staggered Crossroad
equal important

Junction at corner

General Purpose Warning Signs

Traffic Lights

Sharp Rise Ahead

Series of sharp rises

Sharp Depression ahead

Road Narrows Ahead

Unguarded Crossing

Guarded Crossing

Automatic Crossing

Bridge Height Ahead

Tunnel Ahead

Crossings

Steep Decline

Steep Incline

Slippery Roads

Unprotected Quay

Falling Rocks

Trams Crossing

Wild Animals

Resources:

Road Safety Authority Traffic Signs

<http://www.rotr.ie/understanding-traffic-signs/index.html>

Wikipedia's Road Signs in Ireland

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Road_signs_in_Ireland

RSA Motorway Driving booklet

http://www.rsa.ie/Documents/Campaigns/Drunk%20With%20Tiredness/rsa006a_MotorwayBooklet_13_a_web.pdf